Jonathan Salzedo writes ...

The Albany Consort was born on October 20th 1974, at Christ Church, Albany Street, London - hence our name. Marion and I were part of that first group, and since then 500 others have joined us on the musical journey that brings us to the present. When I relocated here in 1981, we decided that we would keep the name, despite the confusion it sometimes causes!

So for October 19 we have programed Bach's celebratory cantata BWV214, written for the Queen of Poland's birthday in 1733, along with the F major harpsichord concerto, his transcription of the 4th Brandenburg Concerto, which we performed in our first concert. We hope you'll join us for this very important anniversary.

But that's not all. We have chamber and small orchestra concerts planned too, including Sacramento and Grass Valley events in fine new venues that have recruited us. And as always, many familiar faces and a few new ones in the lineup.

While our repertoire remains firmly planted in the 18th century and centering around Bach's music, in November, Karen Bentley Pollick and I will premiere two pieces written for us last year by New York composers Jeff Harrington and Stuart Diamond.

Keep music live!
